HELLO OCTOBER ALPHA DELTA KAPPA MONTH

Fall is here!! I look forward to the fall colors, roaring bonfires, roasting hot dogs, and family gatherings. This fall our family gathered in Colorado for a wedding. Fall was in full bloom in Yellowstone, too. My travels delayed this newsletter just a little.

This October as Alpha Delta Kappa sisters we have celebrations throughout this month as we remember our founders who had the vision and determination to start our organization. It's important that we take time to remember and honor those four women; Agnes Shipman Robertson, Marion Southall, Marie Neal, and Hattie Poppino. As we remember them we also need to support each other and actively encourage membership as we continue our commitment to our many altruistic projects and scholarships.

Chapter Buzz

Mu Chapter visited the Timberview Alpaca Farm in Clinton. Alpacas are part of the camel family and they need to lay on their stomachs to regulate their body temperature. A few members had the opportunity to feed some of the alpacas.

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

The 2019 Alpha Delta Kappa Membership Campaign begins Jan.1, 2019. All members are challenged to initiate new members and reinstate former members. The paperwork must be completed and at Headquarters by April 30, 2019. Members transferring do not qualify for this. Chapters with four or more new or reinstated members will be listed in the Kappan. If you reinstate or initiate at least one member your chapter will be entered into a S/P/N/ drawing for a stipend for the 2020 Regional Convention.

International News

Headquarters is using email blast to get the news to all members. The International Executive Board adopted an amendment to the Constitution on Sept. 5. This deletes language that requires two or more years of experience in the education profession for eligibility for membership.

Buzzing with Reminders

Thanks to all the chapter presidents that have sent a copy of their program booklets. I have enjoyed looking through them and learning about all the different activities and projects. I have gotten booklets from 19 chapters. I am eager to hear from everyone and start planning chapter visits!

Please remember to email or snail mail your chapter minutes to me. I read each and every one.

I would like to include news from all chapters. Please send any highlights, activities, and/or pictures that you would like to have placed in the newsletter. I am so interested in the minutes that I get from chapters and I'm sure that other sisters throughout our state would like to see and read what chapters are doing. The newsletter can be a useful way to connect with our IL sisters!

MEMBERS—PLEASE CHECK THE ONLINE DIRECTORY ON THE INTERNATIONAL WEBSITE TO ENSURE THAT YOUR CONTACT INFO IS CORRECT (EMAIL & PHONE).
